

In the First-tier Tribunal
(Consumer Credit)
General Regulatory Chamber

Case No. CCA/2012/0013

Between:

Richard Kenyon

Appellant

and

The Office of Fair Trading

Respondent

ORDER

Before His Honour Judge Peter Wulwik on 4 December 2012

Upon reading the joint application of the parties and a draft consent order
And upon the Appellant and the Respondent having agreed terms for the disposal of this appeal by consent

And upon the request of the parties under Rule 37(1) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (General Regulatory Chamber) Rules 2009

By consent it is ordered that:

1. The Respondent's determination dated 27 June 2012 be varied under Section 41ZB(2)(c) of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 ("the Act") in the manner set out below:

- (a) The Appellant is authorised under Section 34A(1) of the Act to carry on the activity of credit brokerage until Saturday 16 February 2013 for the purpose of enabling the Appellant to transfer or wind up his business.
 - (b) During this period, the Appellant is required under Section 34A(3)(c) of the Act to:
 - i. take all necessary steps to ensure that he complies with the Consumer Credit (Advertisement) Regulations 2010 and all other relevant consumer protection legislation;
 - ii. fully co-operate with the OFT and Trading Standards in the monitoring of his compliance, including the provision of information to the OFT and/or Trading Standards if requested and in permitting access to his business premises by the OFT and/or Trading Standards.
 - (c) Such authorisation shall cease to have effect on Saturday 16 February 2013.
2. Save as aforesaid, the appeal is dismissed.
3. There be no order as to costs.
